

The Bones of Love

Verse 1 Who fires the first shot when a heart's going down?
Who fires the first shot? Who takes the first round?
Someone gets hit when a heart's in the way,
When emotional guns come into play.

Verse 2 When a lover's heart starts to stray,
The Bones of Love are not far away.
When a lover's heart is about to implode,
The Bones of Love start to show.

Chorus When a lover's glow starts to dim,
The Bones of Love come creeping in.
A wounded heart says it all.
The Bones of Love – the heart's last call.

Verse 3 A bullet-proof vest won't pass the test.
When emotional guns lay a heart to rest.
When a lover's dream fades away.
The Bones of Love are here to stay.

Verse 4 There are no sides in a lover's war.
There's no-one around keeping score.
When emotional guns fire away,
Someone gets hit. There's no other way.

Chorus When a lover's glow starts to dim,
The Bones of Love come creeping in.
A wounded heart says it all.
The Bones of Love – the heart's last call.

Verse 5 Who takes the blame when hearts go astray?
When a lover's heart has lost its way?
The Bones of Love lay all around.
When a broken heart hits the ground.

End Chorus A wounded heart says it all.
The Bones of Love – the heart's last call.
